* In May of 1993, the Michigan Supreme Court ruled in the DeJonge case that religious nonpublic schools that claim an objection to teacher certification based upon a sincerely held religious belief are exempt from the minimum teacher education requirement.

 In July of 1996, the Michigan Legislature amended the Compulsory School Attendance Law with the following language, "A child shall not be required to attend the public schools in the following cases: (f) The child is being educated at the child's home by his or her parent or legal guardian in an organized educational program in the subject areas of reading, spelling, mathematics, science, history, civics, literature, writing, and English grammar". Exemption (f) home schools have no relationship with the Michigan Department of Education, so, are not included in this data.

Beginning in 2010-11, the Michigan Department of Education will not be reporting Partially Reported schools.
